EXPECTED SHAKEUP IN CITY OFFICIALS TAKES PLACE; N. W. TARR IS DRAFTED

Appointment of N. W. Tarr to succeed Clinton Nourse who resigned as city trustee, and a general shakeup of appointive officers, furnished an exciting finish to an otherwise placid session of the city trustees last night.

Mr. Nourse asked to be relieved of his office because of a prospective absence from the city of several months. His decision was accepted with regret by the board, as it will be by the public generally.

When someone suggested delay for consideration of a successor, Trustee Saunders said: "I know a mighty good man and now is a good time to put him on the job, while he is out of town temporarily. I nominate N. W. Tarr." The motion carried unanimously.

Appointive Officers

When it came to the places to be filled by appointment, Trustee Holabird moved that all such offices be declared vacant at once. The motion carried.

On motion of Trustee Holabird, Franklin Biederman was reappointed to the position of water superintendent.

On motion of Trustee Saunders, E. F. Ballou was appointed accountant for the water department. Mr. Ballou declared one person could not perform the duties in addition to those of the clerkship, and he thought an allowance in addition to the salary of $60 per month for each position should be made for clerical assistance. No action was taken on the request.

On motion of Trustee Webster, the board appointed Art Udell to the position of street superintendent and marshal.

There was a disposition on the part of some of the board to leave the attorneyship temporarily vacant, a course which Chairman Mitchell opposed on the plea that several matters requiring study had been referred to Mr. Ham for consideration and the board could not afford to try to do business without a legal adviser.

Trustee Nourse nominated Mr. Ham for reappointment and Chairman Mitchell had to call Trustee Webster to the chair so he could furnish the needful second. Trustee Holabird declined to vote, and with Mr. Webster in the chair failing to vote, the count was two to one in favor of the motion and Mr. Ham was declared reappointed.

No action was taken on the positions of engineer, night deputy marshal, or recorder.

To Curb Noise

The board voted to have an illuminated sign placed at the entrance to Sturtevant Road to call attention of mountain hikers to the requirements of quiet and the question of proper policing on Saturday nights and holidays was discussed.

The question of speed limits for the same piece of road and for Kersting Place was also discussed with reference to the state traffic laws. The ordinance committee was instructed to cooperate with the attorney in the preparation of an ordinance to take the place of the old ordinances which have been largely superceded by the state law.

Water Report

Chairman Holabird of the water committee read a written report of investigations covering a part of the water system. He reviewed his own findings and information secured from Supt. Biederman. He recommended that the water committee be empowered to employ a competent expert to give advice on certain phases of the situation and also that expert search be authorized to show the exact rights of the city to certain land now used by the water department but concerning which there is a question as to title.

AMERICA—THE SYMBOL OF FAITH AND HOPE

By GEO. W. GOETHALS
Acting Quartermaster General

EVERY American citizen should be proud of the American Red Cross. It is daily, indeed hourly, giving an example of mercy to the whole world. Through its operations the suffering of soldiers and civilians is being alleviated.

The American people should continue to support the American Red Cross. Through it they are helping their own men and helping the allies. Through it they are making America the symbol of faith and hope in a distracted world.

GEO. W. GOETHALS,

Acting Quartermaster General

Second Red Cross Appeal In Behalf of "Our Boys"

Intensive plans are in the making for the second Red Cross War Fund Week, from May 20 to 27th. Sierra Madre has the proud task of keeping up to her record on all war activities.

The national organization has asked for $100,000,000 the same as last year. It will be the effort of the local organization to equal last year's subscription of $6,700.

On Wednesday a great conference was held in Los Angeles with representatives from all of Southern California and Arizona. Marshall Hale of San Francisco and John B. Miller, the big men of the west in Red Cross affairs, were in charge. Sierra Madre was represented in the conference by Chairman J. D. Mackerras, Louis Dietz, C. C. Wilson and G. B. Morgridge.

Splendid talks were heard, both inspirational and practical. Many of the methods found to be effective in the Liberty Loan campaign were advised for use in the Red Cross drive. Two of the ideas which were strongly emphasized were crystallized into slogans which will be followed out in action, namely:

Any man who thinks he is too big for this Red Cross work is not wanted—he's too small.

"S.O.S." during this campaign will mean "Smoke Out Slackers." Announcement of the complete local organization will be made in next week's News.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Thursday luncheon was well patronized yesterday.

The Chapter has had a donation of a 6 hole wood and coal cook stove. It is suitable for some canyon home.

There are also two phonographs on hand, received through donations.

The Chapter members would be pleased to receive offers for them from persons who can make use of them.

Membership is now 967.

Lieut. Charles W. Schwartz has received his commission after completing his flying course at Rockwell Field, San Diego. He expects to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schwartz before leaving for advanced training at San Antonio, Texas.

PICNIC REUNION

FOR N. Y. FOLKS

Here is an open invitation for all the people of Southern California who ever lived in the state of New York to attend a jolly all-day picnic reunion in Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles, Saturday, May 18, 1918. There will be county headquarters where you can meet friends, basket dinners at noon, coffee provided, and a program opening about two o'clock with songs and patriotic addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Rec. Stanberry returned Thursday after spending two weeks at Newport Beach as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Montgomery left last week to make their home in Pasadena.

LIBERTY BOND SALE SHOWS WIDE DISTRIBUTION AS WELL AS FOUR TIMES THE QUOTA

With a total of $77,700 subscribed to the Third Liberty Loan Sierra Madre won the honor of three stars on the Honor Flag. The quota was multiplied by four and $500 added for good measure.

Remarkably wide distribution was secured, 458 individuals making a total of 531 subscriptions. On the second loan 183 individuals subscribed $42,650. On the first loan 92 individuals subscribed $13,500.

The largest amount taken by one individual was $4,000. 222 subscribers took $50 each and 133 took $100 each.

The 355 subscribers taking $100 or less accounted for $24,400. 84 who took amounts more than $100 and less than $1,000 accounted for $25,650. The 19 subscribers taking $1000 or more accounted for $27,650.

Japanese residents subscribed $2,600. The Boy Scouts secured 45 subscriptions amounting to $6,650.

Work of Teams

Very high percentages were scored by the various teams of solicitors. Each team was assigned to a district, with a carefully compiled list of prospects to call on. The following table lists the workers and gives the percentage of subscriptions obtained as compared with what were expected.

1—W. J. Lawless, E. C. Carhart, W. E. Walker, 105 per cent.
2—J. N. Hawks, C. J. Pegler, W. S. Andrews, 95 per cent.
3—Louis Dietz, J. M. Hooker, G. C. Rodell, 103 per cent.

4—F. P. Sperry, A. G. Stone, C. W. Forman, 94 per cent.

5—K. M. Ham, W. C. Lynch, C. C. Wilson, Woodson F. Jones, 84 per cent.

6—Chas. S. Kersting, Robert Mitchell, Dr. L. L. Krebs, Carl Young, 100 per cent.

7—J. D. Mackerras, G. L. Kelley, C. L. Dickey, 84 per cent.

8—W. W. Collins, Arthur Johnson Jr., W. H. Holabird, 96 per cent.

MONROVIA TO HAVE RED CROSS DAY

Monrovia is planning to start the first big Red Cross demonstration in Southern California next Friday, May 17, in staging a unique Red Cross parade in celebration of the city's thirty-second birthday anniversary. The program will be of a military nature, and the Fifteenth and Thirtieth Companies of Coast Artillery, with the Coast Artillery Band, have been given permission to spend the day in Monrovia and participate in the celebration. Many of the boys in the two companies are a part of the old Twenty-fourth Company, recruited in Monrovia, Sierra Madre, Glendora, Covina and Azusa, and the day's holiday will be a real homecoming to them.

Sierra Madre people are given a cordial invitation to take part in the parade, which will have Red Cross, military, float, automobile, comic and other divisions. Entrants are requested, however, to go to no expense in decorating motor cars or other vehicles as the whole affair is a benefit for the Red Cross, and all other items of cost will be kept to a minimum.

The parade takes place at 2:30, and in the evening. Monrovia's new service flag, 12 by 18 feet in size, will be dedicated, as

These figures do not include subscriptions obtained outside assigned districts nor at the band stand meeting, nor by the Boy Scouts.

The achievement of the campaign was fittingly observed at the special patriotic service held in the Congregational church on Sunday night. On account of the illness of Col. Holabird, Mr. Essick presided. Two patriotic songs were given by Miss Cook.

Chairman C. W. Jones of the Liberty Loan Committee gave a brief account of the campaign. He paid a tribute to the canvassers and called particular attention to the indefatigable labors of C. W. Forman in compiling systematic records of the entire population which greatly facilitated the work of everybody engaged in the campaign. Bryant Essick, Scoutmaster, reported the work of the Boy Scouts.

"Support the President"

In the preface to his remarks Mr. Wilson gave a vivid account of the amount of war supplies which could be purchased with Sierra Madre's subscription. Grounds for wholehearted support of President Wilson, he said, are the president's sterling character and unquestioned ability; his achievements which were quoted at length, including the progress of war preparations and the overshadowing fact that the present concerted action of the Allies is to his everlasting credit; his sympathies, always with the common people; and his vision of world democracy expressed in his repeated statements of war aims which has given him to a remarkable degree the moral leadership of the war and has made him virtually the voice of the Allies.

The church was filled for the occasion, most of the campaigners present and sitting in a body to the right of the pulpit while the Boy Scouts occupied seats to the left.

will the Liberty Loan honor flag. Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe will do the honors. The evening will close with a popular nickel-street-dance.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION SOON

The thirty-third annual convention of the Los Angeles County Sunday School Association will be held in the First Baptist church of Pomona, Thursday and Friday, May 16th and 17th. All plans are now complete. On account of war conditions, no money will be spent for speakers coming from distant parts of the country. Many expert denominational leaders live in the southern part of the state and these will be utilized.

Notable among the speakers will be W. F. Richardson, D. D., pastor of the Hollywood Christian church, on Thursday afternoon. His address will be on "Personality as a Teacher." The same evening W. W. Casselberry, D. D., of the West Adams Street Presbyterian church, and Dr. John Snape of the Hollywood Baptist church, will divide the time on Sunday School problems. Dr. Byron W. Wilson, Professor A. A. Macurda, Rev. F. G. H. Stevens, Dr. W. A. Phillips, Miss Marie Brehm, Rev. C. A. Cole, Mrs. W. A. Rider, and many others will be heard on various topics.

1 cup flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons fat
1/2 cup water or milk (about)
Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; work in the fat with fork or knife; add potato and mix thoroughly; then add enough liquid to make a soft dough; roll the dough lightly to about one-half inch thickness; cut in biscuits and bake 12 to 15 minutes in hot oven.

POTATO BISCUIT—No. 2

Boil and mash six or eight potatoes; while warm lay on a floured pastry board and run the rolling pin over them until they are free from lumps; turn into a bowl, wet with a cup of sweet milk and add a teaspoon of melted fat; when well mixed work in half a cup of salted flour, or just enough to make a soft dough, return to the board, roll out quickly and lightly into a thin sheet, and cut into round cakes; bake in a quick oven; butter as soon as they are done, laying one on top of the other in a pile. Eat before they fall.

The excellence of potato biscuits depends very greatly upon the softness of the dough, light handling, and quick baking. If properly made, they will be found extremely nice.

1 tablespoon melted fat
2 tablespoons milk
1 teaspoon salt

SURPRISE BALLS

Form mashed potatoes into balls and with a teaspoon make a depression in the top of each; mix one cup of grated cheese with salt, celery salt, and butter substitute, and put one teaspoon in the hollow of each potato ball; mold the ball so the stuffing is concealed and brown in the oven or frying pan.

COLCANNON

Mix one cup of mashed potatoes and one cup of chopped greens to a smooth paste; add a tablespoon of fat, salt and paprika to taste; place in baking pan, cover with mashed potato, brown in the oven and serve very hot.

WHITE POTATO CUSTARDS

2 cups riced baked potato
4 eggs beaten slightly
1 cup sugar
1-3 cup fat
1-4 cup thin cream or top milk
Juice and rind of one lemon
Mix in the order given; beat hard for 5 minutes; pour into baking dish. Bake in hot oven 20 or 30 minutes or until custard is set.

POTATO IN CAKE

In the usual cake recipe, substitute one cup of mashed potatoes for one-half cup of milk and one-half cup of flour; mash the potatoes and beat up with milk until very light. Potato cake does not dry out so quickly as all-flour cake.

IT IS YOUR DUTY TO KEEP YOURSELF INFORMED—DON'T OVERLOOK THESE BOOKLETS

"Meet German propaganda with Truth propaganda," might be the working slogan of the Committee on Public Information. "The truth shall make you free." The degree and promptness of the success of Right in the present war will depend on the degree with which the truth is made evident to the people of the world. One of the largest factors, outside of the utterances of President Wilson himself, in bringing the truth home to the people is the work of the committee, of which Mr. George Creel is chairman.

You have missed some mighty profitable reading if you have overlooked the series of booklets published by the Committee on Public Information and furnished free to all who ask for them. There is no need to worry about any person doing his "bit" who will take the trouble to study up on America's relation to the war. Without doubt the best source of information for the purpose is the series of booklets named. Get them and read them. If you will do that I'll guarantee you will pass them on and urge your friends to read them.

A tremendous campaign of abuse and misrepresentation has lately been directed against Mr. Creel. Read these books and get an insight into the work his committee is really doing. You will then see how unfounded are most of the criticisms.

Why America Fights Germany Summarized

"If Democracy is conquered in this war, all free peoples must either submit to Germany's domination or else give up a part of their democracy in order to resist her. We must fight Germany in Europe with help, that we may not have to fight her here in America without help." Thus Prof. Tatlock of Stanford sets forth the fundamental reason why we are in the war. He reviews the diplomacy and the overt acts of Germany which forced war upon us, in this latest booklet of the series.

Pacifists Preaching War in New Booklet

Another late booklet of the series is devoted to the opinions of a number of well known pacifists who put the emphasis in the "fist." Between a worthy war patriotism and a virile peace patriotism, there is no essential difference," says Louis F. Post. "Now that we are in the war, the shortest way out is forward," says Dr. David Starr Jordan.

"The supreme duty of every man, woman and child in America today is, avoiding panics and hatred of persons, to remember the ghastly offences of a might-worshipping aggressor, and bend every possible effort to win and end this war," says the compiler of the booklet, Arthur D. Call, who is editor of "The Peace Advocate." There is a lot of other inspiring reading from some much misunderstood people.

War Frightfulness as Taught by Germany

One of the most damning compilations of evidence yet presented in the case against the Hun is in the booklet entitled "The German War Code." It shows that the proven barbarities of the Germans are not the occasional outbreaks of uncontrolled ruffians. They are the result rather of a carefully taught code of war practices, drilled into the minds of German soldiery for years. It accounts for "frightfulness" without any theorizing.

German Treatment of Conquered Territory

Kaiserism at its worst is revealed in the booklet entitled "German Treatment of Conquered Territory." If you want to know what to expect in case of a German invasion of any part of America, secure and read this booklet. For sheer horror, it is one of the most convincing proofs of the relation of the Kaiser to the salvation of the world.

How to Get These Booklets

Other booklets in this series, though not so recent as those named, are entitled, "How the War Came to America," history leading up to the declaration of war; "The President's Flag Day Address with evidence of Germany's Plans;" "German War Practices," authentic information as to the treatment of civilians in conquered territory; "Conquest and Kultur," showing by quotations from German authors how the German megalomania was developed; "American Loyalty," inspiring expressions from citizens of German descent who feel their duty toward the land where they have realized the highest known expression of political liberty.

Any person can secure any two of these booklets by writing to the Committee on Public Information, 10 Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

If you would like to inspect the series before making a selection, call at the post office, where I have one copy of each on file. It will be a patriotic service if you will help to secure a wide reading for these publications.

GEORGE B. MORGRIDGE

Hoover Outlines Work of Food Administration and What It Has Done for America and the Allies

By Herbert Hoover

(From an Address.)

We of America are voluntarily saving food to send abroad to help win the war. Those of us, who, like myself, have lived behind the German lines, find our hearts haunted by the scenes of long lines of emaciated women and children who today and for three years have gathered in Belgium for their daily bread from America. That pittance—their all—represents scarcely the wastes from American tables. This winter these lines have, for the first time during the war, gathered in the poorer sections of England, France and Italy. Not only should this pull at our hearts, but beyond this it is a menace to our very safety. In the presence of a common enemy we sit at a common table with all people defenders. Is the daily call of the Food Administration for less waste, for simpler living, to eat only for strength, not a call to conscience? Is it not a vital call of defense?

Voluntary conservation of food has a moral side of importance. By it we are appealing directly for the self-sacrifice of the people of the United States to the carrying on of the war. I do not believe that there is another nation in the world in which the proportion of individuals with a willing sense of self-sacrifice is so high as in this people of ours, and in which a sufficient voluntary reduction could be obtained. This basis of reduction gave some trepidation to the Allies, for fear of its failure, but I am happy to say that we shall have performed our national duty, the Allies will have been fed during this harvest year, so far as the obligation falls upon us, almost wholly upon a voluntary footing. Far beyond this, it is justifying us in our belief in the high idealism and willingness to sacrifice in the American people.

We have had some criticism from individuals who believe that they should not be called upon to do more than their neighbors willingly do. In response to this, my feeling is that our Army does not fail to go over the top because there may be two or three slackers hiding in the trenches.

Aside from the prime necessity of protecting our independence and our institutions, there is but one possible benefit from the war, and that is the stimulation of self-sacrifice in the people, the lifting of its ideals and the division of its peace tendencies because of the purely material things in life, to a strengthening of its higher purposes. I do not say that such compensations are full compensation for war, but they are at least an amelioration of the terrible currents that are threatening our existence. Therefore, we felt that if there could be brought home to the sense of every American household the necessity of this personal and individual sacrifice, we would have spread the opportunity for service beyond those who sacrifice in giving their sons to immolation on the national altar.

To accomplish this requires education, requires an intimate understanding by each man and woman in the United States of the objectives of the government and the duty that falls upon them. We have called upon the millions of women and men in the United States with an unflinching reply. We have created great numbers of committees who have worked with the utmost devotion. We have entered our 20,000,000 households periodically with literature and we have plastered the country with posters and urging. We have secured the fine co-operation of the manufacturers and distributors of food. But we could not have attained this had we not had the absolute devotion and team work of every newspaper in the United States. Our every appeal has, through this gigantic influence, received an immediate and prompt distribution. Without this incessant, voluntary, liberal support, our plan would have been impossible.

No person in the United States has a right to make one cent more profit out of any employment than he would have made under pre-war conditions. I do not care whether this refers to the farmer, to the laborer, to the manufacturer, to the middleman or to the retailer. Every cent taken beyond this standard is money abstracted from the blood and sacrifice of the American people.

Extortionate profits are not necessary to secure the maximum effort on the part of the American people in this war. If we are going to adopt that theory, we have admitted everything that has been charged against us of being the most materialistic, the most avaricious, and the most venal of people in this world.

If we are going to admit that the government, in order to secure the supreme effort of its citizens in production, must bribe them with money to this extra exertion, we have admitted a weakness of American character, of American civilization and of American ideals that puts us on a plane below German Kultur.

Do not mistake that I am saying that prices and wages should return to the pre-war normal, because the incidence of war before we joined in it had lifted our costs of operation, and there must be compensation in every direction. Nevertheless, I hold that any man who has made more than his necessary living out of the cost this nation is giving in the blood of the boys we are sending to France, should not stand out as a benefactor to his community.

I have had this statement met before now with the expression that it is dreamy idealism, but I have found no individual who was prepared in his own instance to defend any such line of action.

I am confident that profiteering has from a national point of view disappeared in the larger food trades, and in consequence my belief is that it should be applied generally to all business in the community, and it is also my belief that before we are finished with this war, that will have been done.

To me, this goes much further than the mere case of the individual and the blame that may be attached to him. As I have seen this war develop, and from an active participation in its backwash and misery since its first day, I have seen growing out of the masses of people in every country aspirations for a great economic change. That change, broadly, as stated by extremists, will be that those who work with their hands will obtain a larger portion of this world's goods, and those who work with their brains will obtain less. Those who do not work will probably obtain nothing.

If we are to bring about this economic change in an orderly and American way, and not by convulsions during the period of recuperation from the war, we must lay the foundations for it now. None of us wants a repetition in the United States of the history of the last twelve months in Russia. The proper social development of this country along these lines fills the background of all men's minds and its proper guidance rests upon the liberal and thinking men of the country.

There is but one real test for us. Our game is to win the war, and the test is, Do we keep our eye on the ball? For, friends, this people will be cursed for the next ten generations if we don't. Nor does this test apply to Washington alone. We in the Government can often criticize also, and our right of criticism lies against that minority of people who hope for self-interest—financial, social or political—out of winning the war. This Government is nothing more than the expression of the people, and if we are to win the war, it will be only because every man, woman and child charges himself daily and hourly with the test. Does this or that contribute to win the war?

Nor is this the gospel of gloom, it is the gospel of the full health, spirits and strength of our people in maintaining the last ounce of production, the last atom of economy.

AMERICA'S FOOD POLICY SAVED THE ALLIES, SAYS LORD RHONDA

Even the most ardent admirers of the United States—and I count myself to be among them—must be astounded at what the American people have accomplished in their first year in the war. When America came in we all realized that her potential resources of men, money and material were unequalled either by friend or foe, but we also knew that these resources were unorganized, her men untrained and her shipping facilities undeveloped. In one year the United States has done most of the things we have not done yet.

As Food Controller of the United Kingdom (Great Britain) I can say without hesitation that had it not been for the establishment by President Wilson and Congress of a Food Administration and for the superb generalship of Mr. Hoover as Food Administrator the outlook for the Allies would be very black indeed. Neither American nor allied troops can fight on empty stomachs, and the civilian populations in their rear cannot provide them with money, munitions or moral support unless they have a maximum of essential food wherewith to maintain output and efficiency. The wonderful organization on behalf of the Allies and of America's own military effort of the food resources of the United States, although only legalized eight months ago, has so far enabled us to defy the menace of famine.

But if we are to fight through to the finish no compulsory restrictions of rationing which I have imposed or may impose, and no sacrifice which our people here may make will be of avail unless the American people keep up a full head of steam and continue to provide to the utmost of their patriotism and their capacity these food supplies upon which victory depends.

(Signed) RHONDA.

Save Wheat

Wheat saving is America's most vital food problem.

The United States Food Administration, in view of the critical wheat shortage, asks every Californian to observe the following amended rules:

Make every meal every day a "wheatless" meal. Eat no food of any kind containing wheat or wheat products unless absolutely necessary for health.

Substitute fresh and cured meats of all kinds, including pork, potatoes, fresh vegetables, fruits, dairy products and other cereals, such as corn and rice.

The "meatless" and "porkless" days have been suspended.

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

Stenographers and typewriters wanted—men and women.

The United States Government is in urgent need of thousands of typewriter operators and stenographers and typewriters. All who pass examinations for the department and offices at Washington, D. C., are assured of certification for appointment. It is the manifest duty of citizens with this special knowledge to use it at this time where it will be of most value to the Government. Women especially are urged to undertake this office work. Those who have not the required training are encouraged to undergo instruction at once.

Examinations for the Departmental Service, for both men and women, are held every Tuesday, in 450 of the principal cities of the United States, and applications may be filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C., at any time.

The entrance salary ranges from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. Advancement of capable employees to higher salaries is reasonably rapid.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth birthday on the date of the examination.

For full information in regard to the scope and character of the examination and for application blanks address the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners at Boston, Mass.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Atlanta, Ga.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.; St. Paul, Minn.; St. Louis, Mo.; New Orleans, La.; Seattle, Wash.; San Francisco, Cal.; Honolulu, Hawaii; or San Juan, Porto Rico.

THE BRAVEST BATTLE

Next Sunday will be "Mothers' Day." Hardly anything is more appropriate than Joaquin Miller's poem:

The bravest battle that was ever fought—
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not;
'Twas fought by the mothers of men.

Nay, not with cannon, or battleshot,
With sword, or nobler pen;
Nay, not with eloquent word or thought,
From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in a walled-up woman's heart—
Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently bore her part—
Lo! there is that battlefield!

No marshalling troop, no bivouac song;
No banners to gleam and wave;
But oh! these battles, they last so long—
From babyhood to the grave!

Yet faithful still as a bridge of stars,
She fights in her walled-up town—
Fights on, and on, in the endless wars,
Then silent, unseen, goes down!

Oh! we with banners and battleshot,
And soldiers to shout and praise,
I tell you the kingliest victories fought
Are fought in these silent ways!

Oh, spotless woman in a world of shame,
With splendid and silent scorn;
Go back to God, as white as you came,
The kingliest warrior born.

"HOW DO YOU KNOW?"

There are too many "yellow dogs" in Sierra Madre. If you want to know just exactly what I mean, read the story in last week's Saturday Evening Post and find out how one commuter ridded his town of the seditious gossip which is habitually handed out by people who call themselves patriotic. The story will give you a good laugh and maybe you can spot some "yellow dogs" in your own neighborhood.

BETTER ALL THE TIME

In the Red Cross Drive a year ago the slogan was "Give till it hurts." This year we have an improvement: "Give till you like it."

HELP PREVENT ANOTHER COAL FAMINE

If you use coal for winter fuel, order now and have it delivered early for next winter. Your foresight will help to prevent a repetition of last winter's coal shortage, in you own or someone's else supply.

THE WRONG EMPHASIS

Most of these people who insist on their right to constructive criticism of the government criticize with the accent on the "con."

START THE SMOKE BLOWER

In the coming Red Cross War Fund Week "SOS" will have the significant meaning: "Smoke Out Slackers."

DON'T ADD TO THE SOLDIER'S BURDENS

When a soldier has gone to fight the Hun devils, isn't it too much to require him also to fight the blue devils of despondency? No one cause accounts for so many desertions and other troubles, it is said, as "blue letters" from home. The boys are entitled to all the cheer and sunshine that can be carried through the mails. In times of family trouble it is often hard for the members at home to write in their usual cheerful vein. There is the chance for their friends to exercise some tact and write a letter to the absent boy which may help supply some of the good spirits he is entitled to receive from home.
